

Three Key Questions:

1. If money was no object how much life protection do you need to protect your family?
 2. If money was no object how long does your family need this protection?
 3. What amount of money can we use to design the best solution to solve your problem?
 4. Remember the problem is the problem...the premium is the solution to your problem.
-